townships | information

point lookout

The Stradbroke Island Beach Hotel | Spa Resort is located in Point Lookout, a scenic gem that sits on the northerly tip of North Stradbroke Island embracing the sparkling waters of the Coral Sea.

‘The Point’ features spectacular views, magnificent gorges, pristine beaches & a surging surf teeming with ocean wildlife – dolphins, manta rays, turtles & dugong abound.

Land-based whale-watching becomes a delightful pastime in the winter/spring months, while an abundant variety of fish provides year-round recreation for anglers.

Hundreds of bird species adorn the inland water-ways, and you are almost always guaranteed to come across koalas, wallabies or even a goanna lazing about in the sun.

Upon arrival via either the barge or ferry is the township Dunwich, a small town with a big history. You can learn about Aboriginal art, hunting methods, bush tucker, artefacts & the island's history by taking part in the "Goompi Trail". The Goompi Trail tour is an informative walking tour of Dunwich with a local aboriginal guide. Available for group bookings only. Otherwise Dunwich also has a museum & Art Gallery along with a Jetty & shipwrecks.

townships | information

amity point

After a busy day on 'Straddie' before leaving we recommend you make the trip to the seaside township of Amity Point.

Located just 20 minutes drive from Point Lookout the small fishing village is a quaint sleepy town that is blessed with common sightings of Koalas and a myriad of Birdlife along with the local Dolphins that make their way to the jetty on sunset every afternoon much to the delight of locals and visitors alike.

GORGE WALK

Located at the north west end point of Point Lookout this headland walk is an absolute must for visitors to the island.

The Gorge Walk is about 1.5k's in total & takes you out along the edge of the coastline and is a perfect vantage point for taking photos an ideal for spotting dolphins, turtles & rays. In the winter months it is also the one of the best locations for seeing the humpback whales as the migrate across the ocean.

STRADDIE DAY SPA

Located in our very own Stradbroke Island Beach Hotel is our Day Spa, with a variety of treatments you are able to indulge in every level of relaxation. Be pampered with your choice of a massage, treatment, facial, mani or pedi to name a few - at the Straddie Day Spa you're in good hands.
